Guild Jury Procedure

Show applicants will be selected by jury. The work will be juried on the basis of workmanship, originality and its appropriateness for exhibition in the Greater Barre Craft Guild Show.

The decision of the Jury Committee will be final, however, an explanation of decision will be gladly given. Categories of crafts will be limited, but waiting lists are maintained. If categories are filled, your jurying is good for a two year place on the waiting list. A non-refundable fee of $10 is charged for jurying.

No items from kits are acceptable. Items not juried by the Guild may not appear for sale in your display. All crafts must be your own.

A good representation of your craft (with prices) should be available for jury and if needed, an explanation may also be helpful. Questions: Call Pam at 802-426-3221.

Membership Information Greater Barre Craft Guild

The Greater Barre Craft Guild was founded by crafters and is a non-profit organization. All the officers are volunteers, thus allowing us to maintain reasonable booth rates and a policy of "No Admission Fee."

Our "Free Admission" is a great asset to the show and to the crafters. Also, adding to our attractiveness are the one hundred plus door prizes (donated by the crafters) given away during the show.

A prospective member must be juried and must have participated in at least one show, before applying for membership.

Members pay less for booths.

Members have a vote in the election of officers.

Members may serve on committees.

Members have a voice in guild policies and become part of our Guild family.
